Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

I have recently realigned intelligence functions within the Department of Energy. Consistent with this realignment, and in my capacity as the Senior Intelligence Official, I hereby designate [redacted] Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for International Affairs, as the DOE Senior Intelligence Officer and representative to the National Foreign Intelligence Board, effective November 18, 1977. In [redacted] absence, Dr. John B. K. LaBarre, Director, Office of Current Assessments, will assume the functions and responsibilities of this position.

STAT

Sincerely,

James R. Schlesinger
Secretary
